

207 Old Flynn Rd.
Spindale, NC 28160
828-286-3772
Fax 828-286-0080

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:Word of Faith Fellowship Issues Legal Demand to A&E Regarding Defamatory Content in The Devil Next Door Series

Spindale, North Carolina – December 7, 2018 – Today, Eric Lieberman with Rabinowitz, Boudin, Standard, Krinsky & Lieberman, counsel for The Word of Faith Fellowship, issued a legal demand to A&E Television Networks and Collins Avenue Entertainment regarding the defamatory content contained in The Devil Next Door series. The troubled series, which was indefinitely postponed last week, was produced by Collins Avenue and scheduled to premiere on A&E on November 27, 2018.

Lieberman demanded that A&E and Collins Avenue provide Word of Faith and its attorneys information regarding any allegations of misconduct contained in the shelved series so that it may have opportunity to demonstrate the falsity of such claims to the network and production company. Lieberman also notified A&E and Collins Avenue that failure to engage the Word of Faith in refuting the calumny directed its way by disaffected apostates could form the foundation for a judicial finding that these media outlets were acting in reckless disregard of the actual truthfulness or falsity of the allegations. A&E and Collins Avenue will be proceeding at their own legal peril should they ignore Lieberman's demands.

Finally, in anticipation of possible litigation, Lieberman notified the two companies to preserve all documents, records and files related to the production in an effort to prevent their premature disposal or spoliation.

For complete details, go to www.wordoffaithfellowship.org.

We will be releasing more information as the story continues to unfold.

Joshua Farmer, Attorney
Farmer & Morris Law
(828) 286-3866
jfarmer@farmerlegal.com